Jumbo book

T U F T S C O L L E G E

In 1917, just as the United States was entering the First World War, the first Jumbo Book was published. In 1943, just twenty-six years later, the publication is brought to a close for the duration of the Second World War.

The 1943 edition is built upon the old Chinese proverb that "one picture is better than a thousand words." The Jumbo Book Staff feels certain that the following pages will provide a lasting, living memory of our Alma Mater . . . TUFTS.

To Tufts and Jackson men and women in

And . . .

To all the Sons and Daughters of Tufts

Who are assisting America in the fight for Victory.

To them . . .

Whoever they are . . .

Wherever they may be . . .

We dedicate the 1943 Jumbo Book.

COLLEGE ACTIVITIES

Undergraduate life in American colleges has two important phases, curricular and extra curricular. The curriculum is organized and administered by the faculty, extra curricular activities are organized and administered by the students. Without detracting in any way from the values obtained in the class room I believe that campus activities are of vital importance in developing self reliance and leadership, and consequently are an essential part of education.

This war demands the qualities that college activities produce and, although modifications must be made, these activities should continue unless it can be demonstrated that they interfere with the successful prosecution of the war.

The topic of the hour! To each of us individually, it means protection of our homes, our wealth.

THE FINAL WORD

The 1943 JUMBO BOOK has been the work of many hands; to those who have contributed their time and effort we owe many sincere THANKS.

To Russell Knight of the Stobbs Press, Paul Blanchard of the Warren Press, Franklyn Waid, Jr., Miss Dempsey, and Mr. Yerks of Waid Studio, Richard Kelley, Professor Miller, Mr. Joseph Morton of the Alumni Office. And likewise we are deeply indebted to our staff heads: Ash Jenkinson, Jack Porter, Helen Gott, Doreen Simpson, Eileen Jamieson, Peg Stewart, Janet Foster, Ed Shea and all those staff members who did so much to make this book successful. We express our appreciation.

College Hill . . . the things we did . . . the people we met—and won't forget . . . we hope that the 1943 JUMBO BOOK will serve as a concrete, vivid remembrance of these things.
